Who Cares About Women's Rights?

NOW Cares...

You believe that women should control their lives. You believe in equality. You believe in social justice. You believe in ending violence and discrimination.

You want to meet like-minded people and work together to change the circumstances that negatively affect your life and the lives of people you care about.

From petitioning your city council to fund the local domestic violence shelter, to registering voters for the next election, to organizing a rally against unfair legislation, to planning a meeting where people can share their experiences with street harassment, NOW is a way for you to put your beliefs into concrete action and create change.
